

Paul S. Uribe, MD

Lieutenant Colonel (ret.), Medical Corps, United States Army

Deputy Chief Medical Examiner, Fort Bend County Medical Examiner's Office

Founder, DMH Forensics

- Board Certified in Anatomic, Clinical, and Forensic Pathologist by the American Board of Pathology.
- Retired LTC in the US Army; Former Director of the Office of the Armed Forces Medical Examiner; Chief of Pathology Martin Army Community Hospital, Fort Benning Georgia; Deputy and Regional Medical Examiner at the Armed Forces Medical Examiner System.
- Actively practicing Deputy Chief Medical Examiner outside of Houston and locum tenens (part-time) forensic pathologist in several jurisdictions.
- Over 14 years of staff forensic pathologist experience and performed over 2500 autopsies, including over 400 homicide cases.
- Fellow in the National Association of Medical Examiners, American Academy of Forensic Sciences, International Association of Coroners and Medical Examiners, College of American Pathologists, and American Society for Clinical Pathologists.
- Diplomate in the American Board of Medicolegal Death Investigators.
- Active medical licensure in 9 states.
- Expert witness testimony in Federal, military, state, and local jurisdictions for criminal and civil litigation.
- Presenter at numerous Forensic Pathology Conferences, training seminars, and other training/educational venues.
- Multiple publications in peer reviewed literature.
- Awards include the "A" Proficiency Designator, Order of Medical Military Merit (O2M3), Defense Meritorious Service Medal, and FBI Directors Award for Outstanding Criminal Investigation.